Lord, you have taught us
that all our doings without love are nothing worth:
send your Holy Spirit
and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love,
the true bond of peace and of all virtues,
without which whoever lives is counted dead before you.
Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake,
Who is alive and reigns with you,
In the unity of the Holy Spirit,
One God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading Galatians 1:11-24

I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the gospel that was proclaimed by me is not of human origin;
for I did not receive it from a human source,
nor was I taught it,
but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ.
You have heard, no doubt, of my earlier life in Judaism.
I was violently persecuting the church of God and was trying to destroy it.

I advanced in Judaism beyond many among my people of the same age, for I was far more zealous for the traditions of my ancestors.
 But when God, who had set me apart before I was born and called me through his grace, was pleased to reveal his Son to me,
 so that I might proclaim him among the Gentiles,
 I did not confer with any human being,
 nor did I go up to Jerusalem
 to those who were already apostles before me,
 but I went away at once into Arabia,
 and afterwards I returned to Damascus.
 Then after three years I did go up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and stayed with him fifteen days;
 but I did not see any other apostle except James the Lord's brother.
 In what I am writing to you, before God, I do not lie!
 Then I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia,
 and I was still unknown by sight to the churches of Judea that are in Christ;
 they only heard it said,
 'The one who formerly was persecuting us
 is now proclaiming the faith he once tried to destroy.'
 And they glorified God because of me.

The Gospel

Luke 7:11-17

Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples went with him.
 As he approached the gate of the town,
 a man who had died was being carried out.
 He was his mother's only son, and she was a widow;
 and with her was a large crowd from the town.
 When the Lord saw her, he had compassion for her and said to her,
 'Do not weep.'
 Then he came forward and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still.
 And he said, 'Young man, I say to you, rise?'
 The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother.
 Fear seized all of them; and they glorified God, saying,
 'A great prophet has risen among us!' and
 'God has looked favourably on his people!'
 This word about him spread throughout Judea and all the surrounding country.
